

the considerable advantages that will accrue to your Lordship. That branch, I am informed, has never been thoroughly explored, and traced to its source, but I flatter myself with having your Lordship's concurrence for such an examination into its course, length, width and depth, as may bring this matter to a nearer degree of certainty, and if that should appear to be the fountain head of Potowmack river, I shall not question but your Lordship will be for taking such measures as may ascertain the mutual limits of the two Proprietorships agreeable to the direction, and true intention of their respective charters.

No. 3.

Resolutions November Session 1795.

Resolved, That William Pinkney, William Cooke, and Philip Barton Key, Esquires, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners on the part of this state, to meet such commissioners as may be appointed for the same purpose by the Commonwealth of Virginia, to settle and adjust, by mutual compact between the two governments, the western and southern limits of this state, and the dividing lines and boundaries between this state and the said commonwealth; and also to settle and adjust as aforesaid, any claim of this state or the said commonwealth, to territory within the limits of the other; and the said commissioners are required to report their proceedings in virtue of this appointment and authority, to the general assembly of this state at their next session, after the same shall have been concluded, for confirmation or rejection.

Resolved, That the governor of this state be requested to transmit, without delay, to the governor of Virginia, a copy of the foregoing resolve, in order to its being laid before the legislature of that commonwealth, and and at the same time to communicate the wish of this general assembly that a similar resolve may be passed by the general assembly of Virginia.
